DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

Claims 1-18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claim 1, line 9, "antagonist means" is improper because the "means" statement lacks the commensurate functional language statement. Further, the claim language "acting against an antagonist means" appears to be a method step in an apparatus claim. On line 5, the phrase "which are rotated" is unclear as to which element is being rotated.

On line 6, the phrase "defining an aperture" is unclear as to which elements the Applicant is referring to. On line 8, the phrase "with the possibility of moving further" is unclear as to whether the Applicant is positively claim element or the element's function.

On line 9, the phrase "acting against an antagonist means" is unclear as to which element is acting against the antagonist means. On lines 10 and 11, the phrase "pulled along and pass between the two tenderizer elements by gravity" is not a true statement, it is the turning of the tenderizer elements which allows the pieces of meat to travel, further, "the two tenderizer elements" is unclear as to which elements the Applicant is referring to. On line 13, "each pair of rollers" lacks prior antecedent basis in the claims.

On line 14, "at least one movable tenderizer rollers" lacks prior antecedent basis in the claims. In claim 4, line 2, the two elements" lacks prior antecedent basis in the claims.

In claim 6, line 5, "its ends" is unclear as to which element the Applicant is referring to.

Art Unit: 3643

In claim 12, line 6, "by means of" is an improper "means" statement, and an appropriate functional statement is needed. Similarly, see also claims 14 and 16.

Specification

The specification is objected to as failing to provide proper antecedent basis for the claimed subject matter. See 37 CFR 1.75(d)(1) and MPEP § 608.01(o). Correction of the following is required: The term "antagonist means" lacks prior antecedent basis in the specification.
